

Donate to TongYan Chinese School & Sponsor Community Events

TongYan Chinese School is a qualified 501(c)(3) non-profit organization dedicated to serving the local community by providing quality Chinese language education and promoting cultural understanding. We greatly appreciate your support and welcome donations from both entities and individuals to help enhance our services. The funds received will be allocated towards hiring teachers, acquiring educational supplies, and organizing community events.

For any inquiries or further information, please feel free to reach out to the school principal, Liyun Ma, at 919-272-6009, or you can send an email to info@tongyantang.org. Principal Ma will be more than happy to assist you and provide any additional details you may require.

Your donations are instrumental in ensuring the success and growth of TongYan Chinese School. By supporting TongYan Chinese School at any of these levels, you not only contribute to our cause but also gain visibility and recognition among our diverse community. Together, we can make a lasting impact and create a more connected and culturally enriched community.

We also provide sponsorship opportunities for our individual events, including the annual Lunar New Year celebration, year-end student performance, open house event, school fair, summer concert, and more. You can choose to support any of these events in the following ways:

1. $50 Sponsorship:
  - Your business card or brochure will be displayed at the check-in desk.
2. $200 Sponsorship:
  - Your business logo will be featured on the event registration web page and sponsor poster (24"x 36") placed at the entrance of the venue.
3. $300 Sponsorship:

- You will have a dedicated booth at the event, with one booth available for each category. As a sponsor, you can showcase your business banners and offer business-related activities at your booth.

By sponsoring our events, you will gain valuable exposure and demonstrate your support for our school and community. Choose the sponsorship level that aligns with your goals and preferences, and together, we can make these events memorable and successful.
